

The one night of the year ...

2 April 2005 is the one night of the year when Sydney's favourite cultural venues open their doors in unison and invite you in. Discovery After Dark is a chance to explore the city's famous icons and its little-known treasures, all in one glittering night. Museums, galleries and heritage venues host a night of exhibitions, tours and glimpses behind-the-scenes, from 6.00 pm 'til midnight. Travel between venues on the free bus, enjoy the live entertainment and sip your complimentary glass of wine while you soak in the festival atmosphere
