

State Records

Standard Terms and Conditions of Permission to use State archives

These Standard Terms and Conditions apply to any Letter of Permission to use State archives granted by the State Records Authority of New South Wales.

Permitted Use of Materials

The Letter of Permission allows you to make the Permitted Use of the Materials specified in the Permission.

The Letter of Permission does not transfer ownership of copyright or any other intellectual property rights in the Materials to you.

Conditions

Unless otherwise indicated in the Letter of Permission, the Permission is granted on condition that:

- you must use the Materials accurately and in proper context;
- you must not modify the contents of the Materials;
- you must not use the Materials in a false, misleading, defamatory or offensive manner;
- you must not directly or indirectly indicate that your use of the Materials is a NSW State Government or other official use of the Materials or is endorsed by the State;
- you may reproduce or publish any Royal arms, arms of the State or State symbol (such as the State flag or State badge) or State logo or trade mark appearing in the Materials but only as part of your direct use of those Materials; (For example, if the Materials include a NSW Government document on which the State arms appear, you may reproduce or publish that document as a whole, including the State arms.)
- you must not print, issue or otherwise use the Royal arms, the State arms or a State symbol separately from the Materials in connection with any trade, business, calling or profession, or the collection of any debts (See State Arms, Symbols and Emblems Act 2004);
- you must not use any State logos or trade marks separately from the Materials; and
- you must include the correct citation, acknowledgement and/or copyright notice specified in the Letter of Permission to help other researchers use these Materials in the future and to assist them with obtaining appropriate copyright permission.

For more information on citing State archives please refer to Archives in Brief 10 online at: http://www.records.nsw.gov.au/archives/archives_in_brief_542.asp.

Kindly note that when referring to State Records our name should appear as 'State Records NSW'. 'SR NSW' may be used where space is constrained.

State Records reserves the right at any time to revoke, vary or withdraw the Permission if you breach (or anyone else covered by the Letter of Permission breaches) any of these conditions and otherwise on reasonable notice.

Copyright and IP Clearances from other Owners

Letter of Permission only covers those records contained in the Materials for which the State of NSW is the copyright owner, and does not cover:

- any Excluded Materials indicated in the Letter of Permission for which copyright permission must be obtained from other NSW departments or agencies or
- any copyright, moral rights, trade marks or other intellectual property rights not owned by the State of NSW that may be included in the Materials, whether expressly indicated in the Letter of Permission or not.

It is your responsibility to ensure you have all necessary consents from all owners of copyright, moral rights, trade marks and other intellectual property rights in the Materials in full compliance with the Copyright Act 1968 (Commonwealth), the Trademarks Act 1995 (Commonwealth) and any other relevant legislation before making any use of the Materials.

The State of NSW accepts no responsibility for any use of copyright, trade marks or other intellectual property not owned by the State of NSW, or for any use of the Materials contrary to the terms of the Letter of Permission and these Standard Terms and Conditions.
